Dear William's family, and General Conference of the Church of God (Seventh Day) in the United Kingdom.

Greetings of peace in Christ Jesus.

I am deeply moved by the death of our beloved Pastor Devon Williams. We want to express our most heartfelt condolences on behalf of the International Ministerial Congress of Church of God (Seventh Day) and, in general, of our international community, where Brother Williams has always been very loved and respected.

By the grace of God, we know that this is not the end, only a step that brings His children closer to that glorious day when Christ will return, in which these words will be fulfilled:

“For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel. And with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.”

Please, receive the comfort of our prayers for you all.

Greetings in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ,

The loss of our dear brother and friend Devon Williams is very sad news and a shock to all of us. I have personally very much appreciated getting to know Devon in recent years. His integrity and commitment to Christ and the Church was very well evident and he has been willing to stand in the gap when and where it was needed. Indeed he has fought the good fight and finished the race well.

We will be praying for the family of Devon and for the British conference. If there is any way that we can be of assistance during this time of sorrow and transition, we are here and available.

We look forward to the glorious coming of Christ.

May the grace of God be with you all in abundance.
